"SULPHOLINE LOTION"—An Extraordinary Means of CURING SKIN DISEASES. There is scarcely any eruption that will yield to "Sulpholine" in a few days, and commence to fade away, even if it seems past cure. Ordinary pimples, redness, blotches, scurf, roughness, vanish
as if by magic; whilst old, enduring skin diseases, that have plagued the sufferers for years, however deeply rooted they may be,
"Sulpholine" will successfully attack them.
It destroys the animalcules which cause these unsightly, irritable, painful affections, and always produces a clear, healthy, natural condition of the skin.
"Sulpholine" Lotion is sold by most Chemists. Bottles, 2s. 6d.

We would remind our readers that the Paris Opera Bouffe Company give their first entertainment in the City Hall Theatre this evening, when the comic opera of "Le Petit Duc" will be produced. The Company's stay in Hongkong will be but short, and they will give only two performances here before proceeding to Manila.

The Japan Directory for 1892 has been issued from the office of the Japan Gazette. The directory sustains the reputation it has acquired in past years as a handy book of reference, and the general get up of the work is equal to that of former issues. Considerable alterations have been made in the latter part of the book.

At a meeting of the Cathay Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1165, held yesterday evening, the following officers were duly elected:—M.E.Z., Comp. H. Smith; H. Comp. J. A. Mosely; J. Comp. J. C. Hughes; Scribe E. Comp. T. G. Williamson; Sec. L. Comp. E. George; Treasurer, Comp. L. C. Balfour; P.S., Comp. W. K. Hughes; and Janitor, Comp. J. Grimble.

We would call the attention of intending exhibitors at the forthcoming Flower Show to that part of the advertisement which appears in another column which requests exhibitors to send in poultry and plants on the 13th, and vegetables and cut flowers as early as possible on the morning of the 14th, and also to give notice of the classes they intend to exhibit in at least three days before the Show. If this is noted up to it will obviate the confusion experienced last year.

To-day five of the six men charged with being concerned in the Mong-kok Tsai raid were committed for trial at the next Criminal Sessions, Taung Ait, the fifth prisoner being discharged, three being no evidence as to his being implicated in the attack. Four of the prisoners reserved their defence, but the sixth, now the fifth, admitted his apprehension to the custody of a native Police Sergeant, with whom he had a long standing quarrel. A defence more legitimate, however, will likely have to be made by the prisoner before he gains his acquittal.

We have to-day received from Messrs Noronha & Co. a copy of their Race Book for this year's Meeting. It is a neat and handy volume, got up in even a more tasteful and elaborate style than in former years, and besides giving all the necessary information for the forthcoming races, contains a mass of useful notes for reference of last year's doings at Hongkong, Shanghai, and Fookchow, showing the placed ponies, the names of their owners, and the time in which the several races were run; and also the winners of last month's Ancy Meeting, with the names of the riders.

We are glad to know that the Police Force are about to make some effort to become acquainted with the use of the weapons with which they are armed. The records of their successes when called on to use their arms during the late attacks on Yau-tai, Tai-tan, and Mong-kok Tsai, have been anything but creditable. No one with a claim to Christian charity would rejoice at the death, or even the severe wounding of a fellow creature, simply as an evidence of his proficiency in shooting, but there are times when all charitable feelings of this description must be thrown aside, and matters must be dealt with on the hard and fast lines of stern duty and necessity. The force will commence a course of Musketry Instruction at the Kowloon Range on Monday next under Inspector Cameron, when the European, Sikh, and Chinese constables will be put through a practice somewhat similar to that of the army. The ranges selected will be probably the most useful for the men to be acquainted with, 200, 300, and 400 yards, and three prizes will be awarded to the best aggregate score in each nationality at the three distances; and as a further encouragement to attain proficiency in the use of the carbine, a champion prize will be given to the best shot, to be competed for by the five highest scores of the three squads. The European constables will also practice at 60 and 80 yards with the Royal Irish Constabulary Revolver, the weapon they carry, and a prize will also be offered to the best shot with this arm.

CHAIRS AND JINRIKSHAS.
A case was heard in the Police Court this morning in which fourteen coolies, the licensed bearers of seven licensed chairs, were charged "with that they did unlawfully, when discharged, stand ready for hire at a place other than such as had been selected by the Registrar General for hire to stand."

Mr. Osmund, Registration Clerk, attended the Court and gave evidence as to the working of the Ordinance affecting chairs and their coolies, and as to the interpretation put upon it by the Department to which he belonged. The case arose out of a number of chairs that had been standing around the Clock Tower on Sunday afternoon making a simultaneous rush to the Queen's Road entrance to the Hotel to secure a fare, and thus blocking up the thoroughfare. There is no chair stand round the Clock Tower, and the chair coolies had been clearly guilty of a violation of Section VIII. of Ordinance No. 6, of 1893, in placing their chairs there when unengaged. The Ordinance says:—

"Public vehicles and chairs shall when unengaged, stand for hire at such streets and places as the Registrar General shall from time to time direct."

Mr. Osmund stated that the nearest Chair Stands to the Clock Tower were, one in front of the Queen's Road entrance to the Hotel, one in front of the Supreme Court, and another at Peddar's Square. On further questioning, he admitted, however, that there were far more chairs than the number of stands provided for. Under these circumstances the Magistrate cautioned the offending chair coolies and discharged them.

There is no doubt that a rush of chairs or jinrickshas for an expected life is a most unmitigated nuisance, and one well calculated to try the patience and forbearance of the most even-minded of the sons of Adam. But what is the licensed coolie, be he a chair-bearer or a jinricksha driver, the shafts of the more pretentious jinricksha, to do? There are far more chairs than the number of stands selected will permit of, and a matter of fact the proportion of stands to licensed chairs and jinrickshas is something like one to five—chairs (450) and jinrickshas (850) number 1303, while the stands accommodate considerably less than 200—and these stands have all been selected for the use of chairs, not one being apart for the two-tyres. Furthermore, chairs are not told off or apportioned to any specified stand, but may appropriate a vacant space on any stand which may suit the special whim or caprice of its bearers; thus a chair usually doing business at West Point, may, on returning from a journey to the "Valley," be quickly deposited in the habit of this District. Under these circumstances it is no wonder that much confusion arises, and bad blood exists between the public eaters in this line.

The Registrar General considers, and with some degree of justice, that his business is to regulate the number of chairs and jinrickshas within their province, and to issue licenses, and fix on suitable stands. He does not consider it necessary to apportion chairs to any particular spot, inasmuch as he is not required by Ordinance so to do; and apparently with equal justice, the Police on the other hand do not consider it within their province to interfere with the chairs occupying a stand, providing the number there does not exceed that authorized. They may be chairs usually plying for hire in the Western district occupying a stand in the opposite quarter of the town, it is no business of the constables. The coolies residing in one quarter have naturally a grievance against those of another quarter who may invade their "walk," and breaches of the peace are likely to occur. Application is sometimes made by aggrieved coolies to the Registrar General for redress, but that functionary, considering that his duty has been fulfilled and the Ordinance complied with by him in granting a license, recommends them to appeal to the Police, who in their turn consider they have nothing to do with any particular district, and the disputants are either compelled to bottle their wrath and put up with what they, with some degree of fairness, consider an infringement of their privileges, or risk the consequences of committing a breach of the peace in maintenance of their rights.

In this state of affairs it would seem that the Ordinance providing "for the Regulation of Public Vehicles and Chairs and their Drivers and Bearers" is defective in its provisions, and as the circumstances of the colony have altered very materially since the passing of that Ordinance, nearly twenty years ago, it is full time that a revision took place and that the new state of affairs be met by provision for a greater proportion of stands for the chairs, and that some attempt at distribution and allocation of chairs and jinrickshas to specific districts should be made. No coolie should be held to have violated any law by accepting a fare while travelling through a district to which he did not belong, but if he attempted to occupy a stand other than that to which he had been set apart he should be held liable.

Some of our correspondents, if we are carried on, would possibly lessen the unbearable nuisance of half a dozen chairs or jinrickshas rushing simultaneously to a person immediately on his presenting himself on the public streets, and would probably have a tendency to a better regulation of this class of traffic.

The Forty-third Annual Meeting of this Society was held in Canton, at the house of Messrs Russell & Co., on the 26th of January 1892. The Chairman then moved the confirmation of those Minutes, which was seconded by Mr. Cunningham and passed. In submitting the Account Current of the Treasurer, the Chairman then called attention to an apparent discrepancy between it and that of Dr. Kerr, which was to be submitted presently, consisting in the respective items of $100 credited in this as paid July 22nd, and that of $200 credited in the account of Dr. Kerr as resolved in two orders in June; the explanation being that but one of the orders had been presented to Messrs Russell & Co., the Treasurer, and that the other order is still pending to the credit of Dr. Kerr or his assigns. The thanks of the Society are due to Dr. Ayres of Hongkong and to the Bombay Medical Department for Vaccine and Bovine lymph; to Miss Noyes and Ladies in America for Pictures put up in the Wards; to Mr. C. J. Jones, Secretary of the Society, for his kind and efficient services; to Messrs De Souza & Co. for moderate charge for printing the annual Report.

My thanks are due to Mr. Jeremiasen, also, for his careful oversight of the Hospital during my absence on a trip to Lien Chow, and to Dr. Garrow for assistance rendered at that time, and to several other members of the Committee of Management for their cordial co-operation and assistance in every effort to increase the efficiency of the Hospital.

It was then moved by Mr. Sampson, seconded by Mr. White, that Dr. Kerr's report be approved and the usual number of copies ordered to be printed in English and in Chinese.

The Report of the Managing Committee of the Medical Missionary Society in China for the year 1891:—

"The Committee have the pleasure to report the continued prosperity of the Society, both as regards finances and the eminent usefulness to the Chinese who resort to the Hospital. For the former thanks are due to the liberality of Chinese and foreign contributors, and for the latter the Society is indebted to the skill, tact, and energy of Dr. Kerr, the physician in charge of the Society's Hospital. As regards the financial condition of the Society, however, it should be remarked that the older buildings will soon need extensive repairs which may involve a serious outlay. In their last report the Committee recommended the building of additional wards suitable for paying patients, and for this purpose the sum of $1,000 was voted at the last annual meeting. A row of wards comprising six rooms on the ground floor and a like number on an upper story, has been erected, affording very suitable accommodations for foreign or Chinese patients. The Committee have exceeded the appropriation for this work by $24.53, and they have to ask the Society's approval of their having done so.

"An old and distinguished friend of the Society, now residing in his native country, had intimated his intention of presenting a sum of about $1,500 to be used for some special purpose not yet decided on. The matter still forms the subject of a correspondence with the generous donor, and the Committee therefore do not at present feel at liberty to say more concerning it than that his wish is that the money be so spent as to form a lasting memorial of the late Rev. O. F. Preston, who was formerly yearningly connected with the Society's work."

This report was, upon the motion of Mr. Maris, seconded by Mr. Fulton, approved and accepted, indicative of the additional expenditure therein explained.

In further explanation of the statement in the Committee's report respecting a large donation to the Society with a specific object and subject to certain defined restrictions, but otherwise disposable according to the judgment of the members of the Society, the Chairman informed the members of the purpose; the Chairman submitted to the Meeting extracts of the latest letter yet received from that gentleman (Professor S. Wells Williams, L.L.D., Senior Vice-President of the Society, and now of Yale College)—addressed to himself and dated September 29th, last, wherein the limitations of the grant are defined and its scope otherwise recorded. Whereupon, after full discussion upon the present position of the grant and cordial appreciation of the munificent act of the generous donor, during which it was pointed out that no portion of the sum is to be used for the disbursement of the Hospital, it was moved by Dr. Happer, seconded by Mr. Piercy, "That an extract of a letter from Professor S. Wells Williams, L.L.D., Senior Vice-President of this Society, having been submitted to this Meeting, stating his wish and purpose to donate to this Society the sum of $1,500, to be used for the purpose of some permanent improvement, as a Memorial of the late Rev. O. F. Preston, it is resolved that this Society accept the said donation with the trust that it implies, and tenders to the munificent donor the grateful acknowledgments of its representatives here present."

On the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Noyes, the Members of the Managing Committee of last year were re-elected for this year: namely, Mr. Sampson, Mr. Faber, Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Henry and Dr. Kerr. The Estimates for the current year were then presented by Mr. Sampson as follows:—

For current expenses of Hospital:
Printing books & cutting blocks, 200
Repairs, 150
Teacher and Translator, Rev. R. H. Graves, D.D., 240
Sal. Nam, &c., 120
$2,110

It was then moved by Mr. Sampson, seconded by Dr. Happer, that the Committee be authorized to expend the available means on the basis of these Estimates, on, when it was found that the collar of the jacket did not fit him.)

The charge was proved, and defendant was acquitted in the sum of $2.

Police Intelligence.
(Before Frederick Stewart, Esq.)
Wednesday, February 1.

AN UNLICENSED VEGETABLE HAWKER.
Chun Aman admitted having hawked vegetables without being in possession of a license, and also with obstructing the street traffic to-day. He was fined 50 cents or two days' imprisonment.

ASSAULT ON BOARD THE "GLENELG."
Chun Afung, a coolie, charged Hugh McMillan, a fireman on board the S. S. Glenelg, with having assaulted him on the 31st ult.

Chun Afung said while waiting on a coal boat coming from shore the complainant, who was under the influence of drink, came and struck him a blow on the eye with his fist.

The defendant said he was supplied with some native liquor, which had the effect of turning him into the condition of a man bereft of reason. He humbly expressed his regret for what had occurred and said it was his first appearance in the Police Court. He had been all round the world and never had been in such a predicament before.

The leniency of the law was extended to him, and he was fined $2, or four days' imprisonment.

OBSTINATE CHAIR COOLIES.
The bearers of licensed chairs were charged, on remand, with unlawfully, when unengaged, standing ready for hire at a place other than that directed by the Registrar General, namely, in Queen's Road Central.

An Aching, a constable, said that on Sunday the 29th ult. he was on duty near the Clock Tower, when he observed the defendants all with their chairs placed on the wrong side of the road. He heard an European call for a chair and they all rushed forward inviting him to enter their chair, and entirely blocking up the thoroughfare. Although the defendants had been repeatedly warned by the constable, they all persisted in the annoyance.

Charles Osmund, Registrar General's clerk, said there were stands at the entrance to the Hongkong Hotel, the Supreme Court and Peddar's Wharf; and at these stands the number allowed must not be exceeded. There were a larger number of chairs than the provided stands could accommodate. The Magistrate cautioned the defendants and then discharged them.

DESTRUCTION OF TREES.
Lo Kiu Mui and Tai Mui were convicted of cutting the branches of some trees at Tai Tan Tsai Village. While the prisoners were being conveyed to the station the villagers made a slight attempt to rescue them, but were unsuccessful. The defendants were fined $2 each, or four days' imprisonment with hard labour.

THEFT OF A PIECE OF WOOD.
Mo Sam Hing was sentenced to fourteen days' imprisonment for stealing a piece of wood at Stanley on the 31st ult.

ROBBERY.
Cheong Tak-fong and Tung Yang-kin, doctors, who were charged with being concerned in robbing Chong Yang Chan of $205, were to-day discharged. The case had been remanded to allow of the inmates of the hospital in which the complainant said he had been robbed to appear as witnesses, but the complainant had been unable to point out the house to the police. The defendants acknowledged supplying him with some medicine for a sore eye on the 9th December, but knew nothing further about his actions until he came to the second defendant and said he had been cheated of the $205.

ASSAULT.
Ho Achi, a tailor, was charged with assaulting Chan Ayan.

The complainant said that he had no occupation and had been idle for some months on a visit to a friend. On the 31st ult. he was in a brothel in Square Street, when the defendant along with some others commenced to beat him and drove him out. The defendant struck him on the head and arm with an iron bar. The wounds bled freely and he had to visit the Hospital to have his head bandaged.

The constable apprehended the defendant and saw him beating the complainant with his fists, but did not observe any others assisting him.

Defendant said he was on the way to his shop, when he saw the complainant fighting. The complainant seized hold of him and he was on the point of striking him. He was fined $1, or suffer 4 days' imprisonment with hard labour, and required to give personal security in the sum of $10 to keep the peace for two months.

A DISTURBED BRAHMIN.
William Jacks, seaman of St. Helena, unlicensed, went into the charge room of the Central Station and gave himself up as a destitute. He had frequently done this before, and received some food and a night's lodging, but as he was drunk on this occasion he was locked up and charged with being a rogue and vagabond. He had been twice imprisoned, once for larceny, and once for being a rogue and vagabond. Defendant said he had been in the colony over 9 months and could find no employment; the dock was given to him.

He was sent to prison for 21 days, the imprisonment to be accompanied by hard labour.

THE TABLES TURNED.
On Asai, a shopkeeper, was charged on a warrant with being in possession of stolen property.

The Hon. Ng Chey appeared for the defence.

Chan Kam, keeper of an opium dvan at No. 92, Hollywood Road, said that a man named Yang Tai, formerly cook to his family, who resided at No. 30, West Street, came and visited him. During the visit he went to the roof to dry some clothes, leaving this friend in his room alone.

When he came down the friend was gone, and he saw two cotton jackets, a blue and a silver watch and chain. He went in search of Yang Tai and found him in a gambling house in Market Street. The defendant was standing near the gamblers and had the witness's jackets, bangle, and watch in his hands. He seized Yang Tai, but some party assisted him in his struggle, got away, and witness was unable to detain him. Defendant left the house, and witness followed him to No. 7, Station Street, and ascertained that $12 had been lent on the property; and he refused to allow them to be redeemed, saying that only the party who pledged them would be allowed to redeem them. The same day he returned to the house with Constable 190, and asked admittance, but a woman called from inside that it was too late to redeem things. Next day he accompanied two inspectors, the house was searched and a jacket was found which he claimed as his. Defendant pleaded guilty, and that it fitted him, and was asked to put it on. He said he would give up the jacket, but whether he had done so or not he was not sure.

The charge was proved, and defendant was acquitted in the sum of $2.

THE PRINCES AT CEYLON.
The Ceylon Times gives the following programme of the movements of the Princes on their anticipated arrival in Ceylon:—

Advices having been received by the local authorities from those charged with arranging the details of the visit, the exact date of their arrival at Colombo having been determined, the programme for the reception and entertainment of the royal guests has been finally arranged. Everything will be carried out in accordance with recent instructions from home, to the effect that no public demonstration be made, as in the case of royal visits, or shows, but that the young Middlemarch be entertained simply as Officers of one of her Majesty's vessels of war. This of course precludes all decorations in the public high-ways, public receptions, levees, &c., at the various and the arrangements for the reception and entertainment will be on a scale in keeping with the fact that the older Prince will in all probability be one day King of Great Britain.

The Bacchante will arrive in our harbour on the morning of the 27th January. The Princes will at once land and proceed to Queen's House, driving out through the Cinnamon Gardens in the evening, a dinner being afterwards given to which a large number of guests will be invited.

On the following day, His Excellency the Governor and the Princes, and other officials, will attend a levee at 11 a.m., and in the afternoon they will return to Colombo by special train to Kandy. A dinner will be given at the Pavilion in honor of the guests, and in the evening there will be an exhibition of the Perahera. The procession will take its way through the picturesque grounds of the Pavilion, and while it makes its slow progress through the town, the Governor and his guests will be seated on the Ochigun attached to the Dahala Maligawa, in order to witness the conclusion of the Perahera, when the elephants will be drawn up in a compact array on the green in front of the temple.

On the following morning the Princes will attend a levee at 11 a.m., and in the afternoon they will return to Colombo by special train, in order to rest before starting for the kral on the following day, which the shortness of their stay in the island will necessitate. Monday evening will be spent at Labugama, the scene of the kral, and on the following day the drive will take place. The Princes will be devoted to the work of tying up the wild animals, and on the following day, at an early hour, the Governor and his party will return to Colombo. In the evening of the same day there will be a ball at Queen's House, and on the following day the royal guests will take their departure from our island.

There is now every probability of the weather being favorable for outdoor entertainments, and as the spot selected is extremely healthy, there need be no apprehension on the score of fever or other ailments, and there is no probability that Dr. Ogilby, who has been selected as physician in attendance on the royal party, will have more than nominal duty to discharge.
